1984 Lion Dedication

Few people affect a school as much as this lady does. Her day to day dealings with students have pointed many a struggling researcher down the road to a perfect term paper. By striving for excellence, she has become more than just a faculty member. We at EMJC are proud to dedicate the 1984 Lion to the person who has come to our aid more than once. To you, Mrs. Rogers, we say "Thank you!"

*Life composed of two roads . . .
Which one shall I choose?*

*If I travel the right road,
My life will be full of Ambition and Happiness;
But if I take the wrong one,
It will be a lonely road
leading nowhere . . .*

*What lies ahead for me?
As I come to the fork in the road,
I must choose . . . Now . . .*

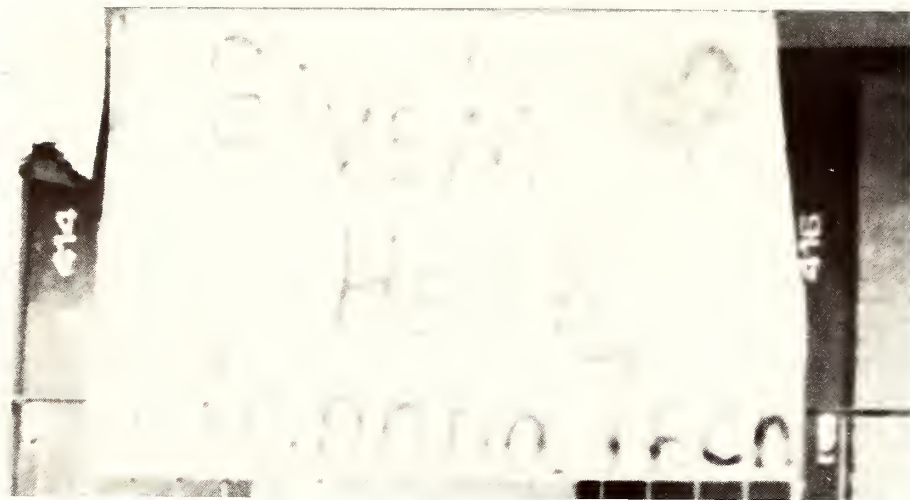

*As I grow old
Will I think back on my Younger Days
and of the road not taken?*

EMJC Dinner Theater

Throughout my past seven years at E.M.J.C. my students have built a very successful drama program. We started the dinner theatre production on a trial, just hoping it would work in our area. This past year we had a sell out. This is partly due to the efforts of cast members in the past years. They helped this department gain a reputation for quality. Thanks to cast members of:

Shirley, Oh Where is Shirley

1981-1982

1982-1983

1983-1984

EMJC Spring Musical

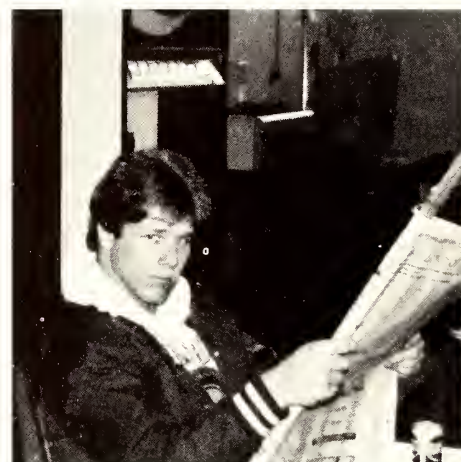

The Spring Musical at E.M.J.C. has grown to become the focal point of the music and drama department during the spring semester each year. This has been an especially hard undertaking due to the number of persons involved. Every year we have had from 60 to 75 students actively involved with this production and this year is no exception. Once again thanks to all those unforgettable moments and students from our past cast.

To the Lions of 1984 who represented our school so well — we're proud of you. The record wasn't perfect; the highest goal wasn't achieved, but at times when others seemed to have the upper hand, you "rose to the occasion." Those are the times we'll remember the most.

To the Students:

We hope you have enjoyed your 1984-85 Lion Yearbook. We had a few problems and we apologize for the delay, but we hope we have captured the memories of an enjoyable year at EMJC. Good Luck to you all! A Special Thanks to all those who helped put our yearbook together.
